

President Trahan Asks Why Russia Is So Lenient On Child Exploitation

The Difficult But Eye-Opening Story About What Led To This Question Being Asked By Primary Candidate Trahan

LOS ANGELES - May 4, 2022 - PRLog -- During these times, President Trahan is consistently researching a string of mysterious incidents, and he has a series of rather concerning questions for you.

President says, "After researching, I've been pondering an array of outlandish possibilities and asking myself a lot of questions. Like, why does everybody seem to be so concerned with Russia for all the wrong reasons? Or, why is no one asking how come Russia is allegedly so lenient on child exploitation websites? And not to mention, why are so many officers in their country very knowledgeable with these criminal's profiles that fit the shoe for this type of content creator, yet, they aren't taking affirmative action? These sites in question are still openly online and they are not very hard to find. But, how can I point the finger at their local officers when our local officers and other nefarious officials seem to be inactive in our own country about the same exact issues? They already know who's doing the dirt, and there is a lot of protection for them by officers and officials. However, this is not necessarily true about every county or area in America, cuz, things are definitely changing. And even still I ask you if the Ukrainian deep state war going on has anything to do with any of this? What do you think?"

Trahan adds, "Yes, there indubiously seems to be a lot of controversy about Russia these days, and at the same time, there's also a lot about overturning Roe Versus Wade having something to do with why you should vote one party over the other. But, now we, as a species, are also exploiting indigenous youth who identify as transgender for that same political agenda? I don't get it. Should I? Am I the only one noticing that all the pressure to openly debate filth--nasty topics like child exploitation and infanticide has made a lot of people suicidal these days, and they're actually going through with it too? I just want to point out, yet again, that the pressure coming from marxist bastards to isolate oneself, and that the promotion of someone being an introvert through memes on social medias, has led to suicide. Suicide prevention is self-made. Where's all the other Certified Life Coaches at when it comes to what I'm saying here? I'm seeing a lot of exploitation from traffickers. They're not preying just on children of a certain gender or nationality, but on the minds and hearts of families everywhere. This is a political agenda, whether you choose to believe that or not. And this is something that needs to be acknowledged."
